Niamh K. Clarke

20 East Range, Charlottesville, VA 22903 | (346) 213-5420 | jkd5pc@virginia.edu

EDUCATION

2027 M.A., English (Teaching Literature and Writing), University of Virginia (expected).
2027 Graduate Certificate in Digital Humanities, University of Virginia (expected).
2024 B.A., English Literature, minor in History, University of Houston, summa cum laude.
2022 A.A., English, Lone Star College, magna cum laude.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Nineteenth-century Irish and British Gothic fiction.
- Monstrosity and confessional politics in religious-minority writing.
- Publication anonymity, editing, revision, and adaptation.
- Computational literary studies, including corpus building and authorship attribution, and its relation to close reading and textual history.

PUBLICATIONS

forthcoming Clarke, Niamh K. "Linda Serrano; Nina Strahm; Patricia M. Storey; Sylvia Turnis; Mary Umansky; Catherine Wahlmeier." Sharing Stories from 1977: Putting the National Women's Conference on the Map.
2023 Clarke, Niamh. "The Echoes of Da." PUBLIC/ATION chapbook, Public Art of the University of Houston System.

AWARDS AND HONORS

2026 Raven Fellowship, John C. Coleman Distinction, The Raven Society, University of Virginia. $2,000.
2026 DH Certificate Technical Learning Grant, Graduate Certificate Program in Digital Humanities, University of Virginia. $2,000.
2026 Barbara Quinn Schmidt and Josef Altholz Travel Grant, Research Society for Victorian Periodicals. $500.
2025 Bond Fellow, Victoria Lynn Bond Fellowship, Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi. $8,500.
2025 Chapter-Nominated Fellow, Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, University of Houston Chapter. $100.
2024 Distinguished History Minor Award, Department of History, University of Houston.
2023 REACH Scholar, Research for Aspiring Coogs in the Humanities, University of Houston. $1,500.
2023 Alexandra L. Rowan Memorial Foundation English Writing Internship, Department of English, University of Houston. $2,500.

CONFERENCE ACTIVITY

Papers Presented

2026 "The Pursuing Presence: Le Fanu, the Dublin University Magazine, and the Migration of Gothic Allegory." Research Society for Victorian Periodicals Conference, "Movements and Migrations in the Nineteenth-Century Periodical Press," Trinity College Dublin, Ireland, July.

2026 "Famine, Forgetting, and the Monster in Le Fanu's 'The Watcher.'" University of Virginia Department of English Graduate Symposium, "Memory," Charlottesville, VA, March 28.

Posters

2024 Mazella, D., N. K. Clarke, and J. M. Hamilton. "Exploring Satire: Mode or Genre? Perspectives from Edinburgh, 1771." Undergraduate Research Day, University of Houston, April 11.

CAMPUS AND DEPARTMENTAL TALKS

2027 Invited speaker, Coffee + Code, Scholars' Lab, University of Virginia Library, (forthcoming).

2026 "Using OCR in DH Research: Getting the Most Out of Rescribe with ScanTailor," graduate student workshop, Digital Humanities Initiative, University of Virginia.

2026 Panelist, Gothic 2.0 Faculty/Student Discussions, Department of English, University of Virginia: The Bride! (dir. Maggie Gyllenhaal), April 29; "Wuthering Heights" (dir. Emerald Fennell), March 11; Dracula: A Love Tale (dir. Luc Besson), February 18.

2025 Panelist, Gothic 2.0 Faculty/Student Discussion, Department of English, University of Virginia: Frankenstein (dir. Guillermo del Toro), November 6.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

SP 2027 Instructor of Record, ENWR 1510: Writing about Monsters

FA 2026 Instructor of Record, ENWR 1510: Writing about Monsters

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON LIBRARIES, DIGITAL HUMANITIES CORE FACILITY

SUM 2025 Co-Instructor of Record, Textual Recovery: OCR Processing Techniques

SP 2025 Teaching Assistant, Foundations in Digital Humanities Project Development

SP 2025 Session Leader, ClioVis training for courses in Early Civilizations and Ancient Rome

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2025–26 Graduate Research Assistant to Professor Victor Luftig, Teaching Literature for Liberty, Department of English, University of Virginia. Worked on open teaching resources in literature for K–12 classrooms.

2024–25 Digital Research Specialist, Textual Recovery, University of Houston Libraries. Project manager for The Year 1771 (OCR and corpus preparation of eighteenth-century materials for computational analysis) and the Digital Media Internship Pilot Program; editor-in-chief of Bits, Bytes, and Scripts.

2024 Digital Humanities Research Coordinator, Department of English, University of Houston. Digitized and cleaned more than 1,000 pages of eighteenth-century texts; supervised two undergraduate researchers on The Year 1771 and developed data protocols.

2023–24 Research Assistant, The Year 1771, REACH program, University of Houston. Historical and literary analysis of eighteenth-century Scottish satire.

SERVICE

2025–27 Historian Vice Chair, The Range Council, University of Virginia.

2025–26 Vice President, Digital Humanities Student Association, University of Virginia.

2025 President, Sigma Tau Delta, Epsilon Phi Chapter, University of Houston.

2023–24 Treasurer, Sigma Tau Delta, Epsilon Phi Chapter, University of Houston.

EXTRA TRAINING

2026 "Distant Reading in R: Analyse the Text and Visualize the Data," European Summer University in Digital Humanities, Besançon, France.

2025 Society of Research Administrators International training in research administration competencies, Office of Contracts and Grants, University of Houston.

2025 Adult Mental Health First Aid, National Council for Mental Wellbeing.

2024 Plan Development in Digital Humanities (Undergraduate), HPE–DSI, University of Houston.

2024 Project Development in Digital Humanities (Undergraduate), HPE–DSI, University of Houston.

RELATED PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Python (NLTK), R; distant reading and NLP pipelines (tokenization, sentiment analysis, topic modeling/LDA, machine learning for text)
- Authorship attribution: stylometry (Delta and Zeta methods); corpus construction; OCR and textual recovery
- Data and visualization: data cleaning and analysis; ggplot2; network analysis (Gephi)
- Geospatial and graphics: GIS and mapping (QGIS, GeoJSON, geocoding); vector graphics (Inkscape, SVG)
- Tools and workflow: version control and web publishing (Git, GitHub); ClioVis; digital humanities project development and management current Personal Graduate Assistant to Angel Adams Parham, Associate Professor of Sociology, University of Virginia.

NONACADEMIC WORK

2025 Research Administration Intern, Office of Contracts and Grants, University of Houston (High Demand Hidden Careers in Research Administration program, BayTech).

2022–24 Substitute Teacher, K–12, Cypress-Fairbanks Independent School District, Houston, TX.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Research Society for Victorian Periodicals (RSVP)
- Victorian Popular Fiction Association (VPFA)
- International Gothic Association (IGA)
- American Conference for Irish Studies (ACIS)
- Modern Language Association (MLA)